Women are encouraged to enroll in nontraditional career and technical education programs.

A nontraditional career is one in which less than 25% of the career field is represented by a specific gender.

Technical College
System of Georgia

Students in nontraditional career fields are eligible for support through Special Populations including mentorship and advising, textbook loans, and computer or equipment rentals.

Nontraditional Occupations for Women:
Agricultural Science
Air Conditioning Technology
Auto Collision Repair
Automotive Technology
Commercial Truck Driving
Computer Support Specialist
Criminal Justice
Culinary Arts
Diesel Equipment Technology
Drafting Technology
Electrical Construction Systems Technology
Emergency Medical Technician
Emerging Technologies
Engineering Technology
Industrial Systems Technology
Precision Machining & Manufacturing
Manufacturing Operations Specialist
Networking Specialist
Welding Technology

CONTACT US

Advisement
Non-Traditional Advisor
706-552-0971
nontradadvisor@athenstech.edu

Resources
Special Populations Coordinator
706-355-5006
specialpops@athenstech.edu

A Unit of the Technical College System of Georgia
Equal Opportunity Institution